“ I have never forgotten the Love she gave to us all and the kindness she always dished out! I always think back and can still taste the frozen chicken nuggets she kept ready and waiting in the freezer on the porch. I remember the bullhead and trout we would clean after Grandpa's fishing days. I'm forever greatfull for her taking care of me in times when I was not feeling well. A truly wonderfull person in every way. I'm certain she and Grandpa are in Gods kindom now and can rest together in peace and love. I will love and miss her always.

“ You never know how much you need someone until they are no longer here, you can never say Hello or Goodbye again-you can never give them a kiss on the cheek, or hold their hands, you can never tell them how much you love them again or how it hurts to live without them. So let them know it now while you still can--2 days Mom and I hurt so bad--I'll talk to you my own special way, and I will miss you every day-please Lord-take good care of her till I can see her again
