

Ms. Andrea Boyea Maiorana

July 24, 1945 - November 19, 2022

It is with heavy hearts the family of Andrea Boyea Maiorana announce her passing on Saturday, November 19, 2022 at home with her sister and her daughter by her side.

Andrea was born on July 24, 1945 to the late Walter A. Boyea and Lou Cooley Boyea Champagne.

She was a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy in 1963. She went on to study nursing for a year in Syracuse, NY. From there she joined the Ursuline Convent and graduated from the Catholic University of America the College of Arts and Sciences with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. After about eight years, she went on to life outside the convent. She taught at St. Clare's in the Bronx and later at Bishop Smith in Malone.

She met her future husband, Silvio "Ritchie" Maiorana a while later and had a daughter, Tiffany in 1979. Years later her and Ritchie parted ways and Andy became a full-time mom and caregiver of Tiffany.

Andy loved gardening, arts and crafts, family get togethers and all things of nature. She was a wonderful artist following in the footsteps of her mom. She sought knowledge of all things in this world. She was a kind, loving and generous person. Her faith in God was ever present!

She will be greatly missed by her beloved daughter, Tiffany Maiorana, whom she cherished above all else as well as her siblings, Barbara (Michael) Szamocki of Massachusetts, Deb Boyea of Malone and Ed (Shannon) Boyea of Malone; a brother-in-law, Jim Chesbrough; and many beloved nieces and nephews, Jenna Law, Madeline Chesbrough, Francesca Boyea Bigness, Melissa and Christopher Wells, Craig E. and Jason P. Boyea and Bella Boyea. She was predeceased by a brother, Craig A. Boyea and a sister, Fran Boyea Chesbrough.

There will be no services.

“ Please accept my sincerest sympathy to Tiffany, Barb, Deb and Ed. I have very early memories of Andy when we lived across the street from each other in the 60's. I spent many a day with the Boyea family and will always remember her as a vivacious and beautiful young woman with a fun-loving spirit. Rest in peace Andy. Candy Stone Figaro

“ My love to all of you, and deep sympathy for the incredibly sad loss, of Andy. Wonderful memories of all our summers together, and also, while I lived in Malone. So talented, and the absolute best Mom to Tiffany! She was everything to her, and, in my eyes, she was one of the strongest women I'd ever met. She will be missed by us all💕

“ My love and condolences to Tiffany, Barb, Deb, Ed and extended family. So many good times spent at Andy’s house. She felt more like a sister than a niece. Always had a new craft in the works and she was so good at painting. She will be greatly missed.

“ My most sincere sympathy to Tiffaney and all of Andi's family at this very sad time. I have known her since the early 60s as she was in the same SJA class as my sister and spent some funny times at our house in Trout River. We were in touch throughout the years and always knew if I needed a kind word or prayer I could turn to Andi. I expect now I can do the same as she is truly in glory. May the Comforter Himself be with those of us who remain her.

I was saddened to hear yesterday of Andi's death. I lived with her in Bethesda, Maryland, and in St. Jerome's in the South Bronx, NY. In fact, the day Andi left the Ursuline Order, I drove her home to Malone. We had lost touch, but I have always remembered her fondly. My condolences to all the family...
Warmly, with happy memories of our time together,
