“ Andy will be greatly missed here on Chateaugay Lake. He was a great neighbor and friend. Loved to hunt and tell stories! At 93 he still did his excise everyday on his bike or walking ! he was a good eater and loved his sweets. Always had chocolates for all who entered. (And my grandsons knew it!) they loved to go over and dance for him. During hunting season when the guys got a deer Andy would come over and check it out and talk about his hunting stories .also taught me how to cook neck roast and said "my family goes for venison neck roast in a big way" he was a wonderfully person inside and out. The DuMonts will miss you Andy

“ Mr. Baker has lived on Lake Road Chateaugay Lake almost as long as our family has had a camp there. He was a helpful neighbour. One winter, our camp door blew open and Mr. Baker noticed it. He took the time to close it and board it up for us while we were gone for the winter. As kids, we remember he and his wife on the lake in their motor boat. They always had a friendly wave and smile. RIP Mr. Baker.
