“ *It is with heavy heart I learned of Anita’s passing. I well remember her addictive smile!
Her willingness to always say “yes” when I needed help with the Annual Church dinners, and, of course, don’t forget the homemade pies she produced in her kitchen! Blessings to all of you! (Christine LaDuke)*

“ Sending long distance Love and prayers to all the Family . Friend Anita surely will be missed by all . Being a Martin growing up in Chateaugay was neighbors to the Trombley and McCann families, But as time passed we all went separate ways but Anita and I especially Holiday time exchanged cards and I would hear how her family was doing and the NEWS of Chateaugay. Our deepest sympathy to all . Ed & Pat Martin Walker

“ To Anita’s family my sincere sympathy on the passing of a special lady who always took the time to stop and have a little visit. Many times on my walks in the past or at Legion ALA meetings we would have a nice chat. She will be missed also as a friendly neighbor on East Main Street. God bless all of you at this sad time. May your Mom and Grandma be enjoying the peace of God’s love ❤️.
