“ I worked with Brian when he worked at Tim Hortons. He learned quickly how to build breakfast sandwiches and the order board. He was always quiet, but respectful. He did whatever was asked of him. I frequently saw Brian on his cell phone during his lunch, I just recently learned that it was his father he was talking with. What a special relationship he must have had with his father. It is not very often that you hear of a young man wanting to converse with his father in the middle of the day.

Thank you, Amy. Working at Tim Horton's helped him come out of his shell a bit. He enjoyed his time with all of you.
