

Mr. Clement E. Lavoie

September 15, 1962 - July 7, 2012

Clement E. Lavoie, Jr., 49, of Chateaugay, NY passed away Saturday, July 7, 2012, at his home due to a long courageous battle with MS.

He was born in Malone, NY on September 15, 1962, the son of Clem and Marilyn Dumont Lavoie.

He was married to Jodene Hoy on October 17, 1992 in Saranac Lake.

Clem grew up in Fulton, NY where he graduated from G. Ray Bodley High School in 1981 and two years at Canton ATC, Canton, NY. He enjoyed wrestling in his high school years and spending summers on his grandfather's farm. He settled on his own farm in Chateaugay, NY. He had worked with NYS Correctional facilities in Fishkill, Ogdensburg, Malone, and Chateaugay, NY. He was predeceased by his brother, Brian J. Lavoie in 2011, grandparents, Bernice and Kenneth Dumont and Mary and Hermas Lavoie.

He is survived by his wife of 19 years; his daughters, Astrid Strydom and Jocelyne Lavoie of Chateaugay, NY; his parents Clem and Marilyn Lavoie of Fulton, NY; his sister and brother-in-law Lisa and Charles Howell of Binghamton, NY; his grandson, Peter Aiden McDermott; and several nieces and nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles.

Calling hours will be held at the Chateaugay Funeral Home on Friday, July 13 from 4 to 7 pm.

A funeral service will be held at the Brainardsville United Methodist Church at 11 am on Saturday, July 14.

Burial will take place at the Brainardsville Cemetery.

Donations in his memory may be made to Hospice of the North Country, Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Chateaugay Fire Dept. or Northern Ambulance.

“ Clem was a class act! Hardest worker. We played football at the Distin's and raced bicycles in Clems long driveway. We wore our football helmets for both events. Clem wore the miami dolphins. I'll always remember what a great kid and wrestler Clem was. I'm sure he continued on being a great husband and father in His adulthood. My sincere condolences on the loss of clem to all of his family and friends.
