“ I only knew Danny for this past year while I have been the Association Coordinator at the Burke Adult Center where Danny volunteered. He was a very pleasant and polite young man, and he always had a smile on his face. He did many tasks here at the center, always willing to do whatever was needed that would help the Seniors. He will be missed here by all of the Seniors that come to the Center, and will have many prayers that he is in the presence of the Lord and in God's good hands now, pain free. We will all miss him here in Burke.
