As the Burke Town Supervisor he was a tireless community servant. He thought very deeply about his town. He spoke so eloquently and with great care at the Town meetings. A man of great integrity. “David was an amazing man!!!! There were about 15 of us that hung around together as teens and grew to be very good friends, as we grew older, got married, had children and went to work for a living, we lost touch on a regular basis, but we still kept in touch when we would run into each other. He was called home to end his suffering, but he will be sadly missed here with his friends and family. I am so sorry for your loss!! R.I.P. Dave, until we meet again.

“ Dave was a man who walked to the beat of his own drum. He was a successful farmer who still found the time to serve his community, his family, and his church. With all his health issues, it would have been easy for him to give up on life, yet he persevered and sought no sympathy. Dave was always the first one to extend a friendly hello to anyone who crossed his path. He will be missed for sure and my condolences to his extended family.
