“ While teaching at Davis Elementary School in Malone, I had the opportunity to become acquainted with Doris. She became a wonderful friend and support person to myself and the students in my classroom. We have many wonderful memories of the parties and field trips that she enjoyed with us. Of course, her delicious “treats” were always welcome additions as well. I will miss her many kindnesses.

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to her family during this difficult time. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ When I taught at Davis Elementary in Malone, Doris and I shared a lot of laughs after my students had gone for the day and I would be at school preparing for the next day. She was a hard worker and I truly appreciated her. My condolences to her family. ❤️
