He was employed by Republic Steel, Lyon Mountain from 1956 until they closed in 1967. He then worked for many construction companies included Kennedy and Murnane. He was a member and took great pride in belonging to the Lyon Mountain Fire Dept. and the Lyon Mountain American Legion, serving as a member of the firing squad. Peanut really enjoyed being a member of Hunters Home hunting club. He always counted down the days every season until hunting season started. He loved fishing on Chateaugay Lake and especially deep sea fishing with the family on vacations. He enjoyed feeding his birds and pet chipmunks. He loved to go to his brother, Joe's every morning for coffee and enjoyed a good pinochle game after dinner with his family. Peanut always looked forward to his gambling trips to Las Vegas and Atlantic City with his family. Peanut loved a good western and sitting on his front porch listening to good old country music. He enjoyed playing the Jew's harp and looked forward to Friday nights playing volleyball and everyone knew how he never missed a dance at a party.

He took exceptional care of his loving wife everyday that ended with a kiss every night. His children had the best dad in the world. He was there for the grandkids, supporting them in every way possible. The great-grandkids will never forget him. He helped so many people in his lifetime and was just and all around great person. he will be missed so very much.
