

Mr. Gerald R. Magnan

April 4, 1953 - October 21, 2025

Gerald R. Magnan, 72, of Chateaugay, passed away Tuesday , October 21, 2025 while doing what he loved, taking care of his animals on the farm. Born on April 4, 1953 in St. Albans, VT. He was the son of Euclide and Florence (Barkyumb) Magnan.

From a long line of farmers, Gerald owned and operated his own family farm for fifty years. He worked every day of his life and loved to share that work alongside his family. Gerald was quick with a joke, and if no one else thought he was funny, his grandchildren thought he was hilarious. He was swift to help others in need and quiet about expecting gratitude. The small, simple things were always enough for Gerald, and if he had a warm meal and a little conversation, the day was good. When not working, he enjoyed watching baseball, football, hockey, and basketball. His other interests included nature and history documentaries.

Gerald is survived by his wife, Debra of Chateaugay, his four sons and three daughters-in-law: Brian and Amy of Hyde Park, VT, Clark and Carla of Braintree, MA, Calvin and Wendy of Chateaugay, Alex of Chateaugay, and his daughter, Katelyn of Chateaugay. He had five grandchildren: Tyler, Amelia, Parker, Lenora and Miles. He is also survived by his in-laws, Barbara and Martin Warren and several brothers and sisters.

He was predeceased by his parents, his father-in-law John Young, a sister, Mary Boissoneault, and several brothers-in-law.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Donations in Gerald's memory may be made to the American Diabetes Association.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ Our deepest sympathy and prayers to Debbie and family on Gerry’s sudden passing. I was 13 when Gerry was born , so have few memories of Gerry. Somehow , I do seem to recall that he and Mary were very close.I....May God bless you all.....Giles and Carol Boissonneault carol boissonneault - October 26, 2025 at 10:51 AM