

Ms. Gloria Borden

May 26, 1958 - May 5, 2026

Gloria Borden, 67, a resident of the Church Street ICF in Chateaugay died Tuesday, May 5, 2026 at her home.

Gloria was a powerful and determined woman who lived life on her own terms. She knew what she wanted and stood firm in who she was—if it wasn't her way, it simply wasn't happening. Her strength was matched by her beauty, both inside and out, and she brought light and authenticity into every space she entered.

For over 35 years, Gloria shared an unbreakable bond with her two closest friends, Jane and Joe. Together, they built a relationship grounded in love, trust, and companionship—one that became a cornerstone of her life.

Gloria spent her days at the North Franklin Day Program, where she enjoyed meaningful activities and outings. She took pride in participating in Meals on Wheels, loved going to the park, and cherished time spent outdoors, especially sitting by a big window soaking up the sunshine. At home, she found joy in simple pleasures—shopping trips for chocolate bars and her favorite red drinks, while firmly insisting that orange was a color she wanted nothing to do with.

Gloria was truly one of a kind—precious, deeply loved, and unforgettable to all who knew her. Her spirit, her strength, and her light will continue to shine in the hearts of those she touched.

She will be dearly missed, but her glow will live on forever.
