“ *So sorry that I cannot be with all of you.
I can assure you that I am there in my heart.
A true and dear friend cannot be replaced.
My condolences to each and every one of you.
They are united once again like they always were.
I'll remember all the good times we had when we were all together. Stay Safe*

“ My Dearest Shelley & Family...We were so very sorry to receive the news of your precious mother's passing. Our loss here on Earth is surely heaven's gain; how much brighter heaven must be with such an amazing lady within it. I am certain she was received with open arms; reunited with your father, brother, and other loved ones. We will continue to keep you in our hearts, thoughts, and prayers as you navigate tough days ahead. Much Love, The Norman Family

“ So very saddened to learn of your Mom's passing. We graduated together from CCS and have great memories sharing many classes with her. You have suffered unbearable losses, your brother, your father and now your Mom in such a short amount of time. Thinking of all of you and praying for strength and courage for all of you to help you during this difficult time. A friend, Irma Boyea
