“ Theresa was a person I so admired. She always kept busy, even during her breaks at Clinton, she would bring a needle and thread and mend clothing. While at Meadowbrook she enjoyed playing Scrabble with my Mom and I. She won quite often. I loved chatting with her about the mines and old times in Lyon Mountain. A person who worked 43 years is a rare one. Your Mom was strong willed and respected by her coworkers. She was one of the older people in town and wiser. I am sure you have many fond memories to treasure too.
