

Mr. Jack E. Lanctot

May 29, 1952 - July 18, 2023

We regret to announce the sudden and unexpected death of Jack E. Lanctot, 71, on July 16, 2023. Born and raised in Malone, New York, Jack graduated from Franklin Academy and Clinton Community College. He worked as a Correctional Officer for the New York State Department of Corrections until his retirement.

Jack was well-known for his love of English Bulldogs and could be seen as they took him for walks in his neighborhood. He was also very talented at woodworking, having built several furniture pieces that his family members still use, enjoy, and will now cherish.

Jack is survived by his daughters Karrie Lanctot of Malone and Kristin (Ryan) Dean of Virginia, granddaughters Olivia and Ophelie, and his sisters Jill-Ann (Michael) Brockhues of Morrisonville, and Julie (Randall) Stickles of Arizona. He was the son of Edgar and Jeanne Lanctot who predeceased him.

The family will hold a private gravesite service.

My brother loved the time he spent at the Caskins' farm. We even kept a calf (Hollyhock) at Ed's! Thanks for your thoughts.
