

Mr. James Douglas Wyman

March 13, 1954 - September 2, 2021

James Douglas Wyman, 67, of Malone died Thursday, Sept. 2, 2021 at his home under the care of his husband and Hospice of the North Country. Born on March 13, 1954 in Malone, NY, he was the son of Douglas James and Eleanor (Barton) Wyman.

He met his husband, Walter Daniels, Jr., in July, 1997. They were married on Dec. 28, 2017 in Vermont.

James graduated from St. Joseph's Academy, Malone and SUNY Potsdam's Crane School of Music. He was employed for 30 years by North Franklin Federal Credit Union in Malone. During many of those years he worked as Loan Officer. He retired at the end of 2017 as CEO.

He is survived by his husband, Walter of Malone.

He was predeceased by his parents and a cousin, Gary Barton.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Tribute Wall

“ I did not know James very well but his dad, Douglas was my dad's older brother David Wyman. We had moved to Florida in 1956. My parents were David and Eddie Euman and they had 6 kids, me - Glenda, David Jr., Bruce, Gregory, Gail and Diane. I know this too late but thought his husband might enjoy some information about his family. His parents were so sweet and I loved them dearly. I am sorry to hear about his passing.

“ So sorry we never got to meet our cousin. We tried to contact him several times because we were told he had a collection of Gillett photographs that we wanted to copy for our family tree. So sorry for your loss, Walter! If you can share some of these photos with us over the internet, I have a Facebook account and my email address is <junedame47@yahoo.com>. We would be so happy to hear from you. We now live in North Carolina and if our health doesn't get any worse, we may be able to take a trip up there in the spring. Thank you and again, so sorry that we never got to meet him and share our tree with him. Would love a picture!
