“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Janice, one of my best friends from St. Regis Falls. Well before we were teenagers, Janice and I played together at her first home which was just around the corner from mine in SRF. Her mom, Regina, was so nice, and always had treats for us when we came in to rest. I have such vivid and great memories of being on the front porch of her later home near the high school. playing Elvis Presley hits and dancing to his music. I later moved to New Jersey, but over the years we would get together for reunions and for special lunches at the Malone Golf Club with Nancy Marsh and Leanne Day. We spoke just a few months ago about having our yearly lunch this summer. I will really miss you Janice, my friend. Rest in Peace. And sincere condolences to her loving family. Nancy “ Condolences to Jan’s family and friends. I met Jan when we both worked for Franklin County. She was so easy to work with. She especially impressed me when she flew up from Florida to watch her grandson play basketball for the Class D state championship. What a lady! Again, so sorry for your loss.
