“ Jeanette was unpretentious, intelligent, kind, welcoming and easy to be with. She was a good listener. She played the cards dealt her the best she could.

My heartfelt condolences

“ Dear Greg, Peter and Michael, and all the family,

I send you love and prayers, and hope that you will be comforted by your happy memories of your mom. I remember with great fondness all the times we visited your home on College Ave. Lots of loud parties; lots of enthusiastic debates between Hammer and Art, too! Your mom was always very kind to me, and very welcoming. She had a knack for putting everyone at ease. We will remember her with love, always.
