

Ms. Jennifer Brooks

June 1, 1966 - March 19, 2026

Jennifer Brooks, 59, passed away unexpectedly at her home in Arvon, Virginia, on March 19, 2026. She was born on June 1, 1966, in Long Island, New York, to Dorothea (Trimble) Brooks and Norman Brooks.

Jennifer was a devoted daughter who shared a particularly close bond with her father, Norman, and was known as “daddy’s little girl.” Though her father preceded her, that connection, remained a defining part of her life.

Jennifer spent much of her life in Troy, where she attended community college and started her career with Sprint. She worked for Sprint for several years before a life-altering injury left her disabled. She faced her challenges with strength and perseverance. In her later years, she moved to Virginia to be near her parents after their relocation.

Jennifer will be remembered for her unique spirit and the joy she found in life’s simple pleasures. She loved antiques and shopping, always enjoying the thrill of finding something special- appreciating the history and character. Above all her animals-especially her beloved German Shepherds, were her whole world. They were her constant companions, bringing her comfort, happiness and unconditional love throughout her life.

Jennifer never married or had children of her own, yet she leaves behind a legacy of love in Zykell. For many years, she was a devoted figure in his life and she cherished him with all her heart.

She is survived by her mother, Dorothea (Trimble) Brooks; niece, Jessica Brooks (Dustin) Rehkopf and their children, Rayne and Brant; along with many aunts, uncles, and cousins, including Pat Perry whom she shared a special bond with.

She was preceded in death by her father, Norman Brooks, and her brother, Kevin Brooks.

There will be no funeral services. A burial will take place at St. John Bosco Cemetery in Malone, New York, on May 1, 2026, at 11 a.m.

Jennifer's life was defined by resilience, loyalty, and love shown in quiet, everyday moments. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered for her love, strength and boisterous spirit.
