“ Barbie, I’m so sorry to hear of your loss! Jerry was a great man to so many. The many, many times I’ve been in IBC, there is one memory that sticks with me. Every time and I mean every time when he would run into me, it never failed he’d call me Michelle. One time up by register cashing out, he came to talk to the employee, turned around to me & yup,, called me Michelle. I paused, gave him the same look as I always did. He said to the cashier that day, give her 10% off her total. I said it’s ok you don’t have to do that. He whispered to the cashier, which I didn’t hear but he just smiled, told me to have a great day & walked away. Needless to say,, he whispered to her to give me 20% off. I came home & discovered the 20% off. I just shook my head & smiled.

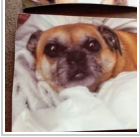

The next time I went to store & ran into him, I said hey Jerry maybe I should wear a name tag while coming in here. We laughed. Many memories of the sandbar up on Chateaugay Lake with a whole gang. I think of him now being with so many loving angels, family & friends,,,, Carrie & my partner in crime,, Al Whalen. And I’m sure so many more he will be with now. Hope you will find Light & Peace through your sorrow. Hugs Barbie & RIP Jerry ❤️🙏

I cherish the friendship from you, I think about our fun together as well as our business relations that even made us closer. You always made me laugh and truly feel like your buddy.
I deeply regret that distance has put us apart and when we talked last we said that we must get together soon "we're both getting to old". Well Jerry we will; someday and you will always be in my mind!
Barb and family I send all our family deep condolences.
