“ When I was a little girl about 7 or 8, my Mom (Kay's sister Sylvia) and my Dad would bring our family up to Malone area during the summer to visit. I still remember her cooking in the big farm house kitchen. She would always have something wonderful on the table.

We would spend the days exploring the farm and playing with my cousins Kyle and Pam. Uncle Cameron would bring in milk for supper and tell stories. Kay would take the time and show us her antique collections of glass, pottery and furniture. I will always remember smile...her voice and how she made us feel at home. I will miss you Aunt Kay. May God give you peace.
