Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time! Kenny was such a pillar of this community and will be missed by everyone who knew him! We had so many good times over the years, both with Dicky in the Fire Dept. and when I would stop to see him and visit. We are so thankful he is no longer suffering. He and your mom can finally be back together again* ❤️ ❤️

“ Our sincerest condolences go out to Kevin, Kelly, Kerry and the extended family of Kenny. We won't be able to attend the services but wanted all to know that we always enjoyed our impromptu and casual conversations with Kenny wherever we might run into him. His character is one of those that made up the fabric of our small town of Chateaugay and his strong willed spirit was an inspiration. May everlasting memories bring you peace in the difficult days ahead. Take care, Lynn and Jim Harrigan
