“ Kyle, oh kyle we have definitely had our hard times together and always managed to but heads a lot but you were always the first I'd run to if I needed help or someone to count on. You were a great guy, and were always ready for anything no matter what it was or what time it was. Our conversations always seemed to last forever but never long enough in ways. “ Our deepest condolences to the family. Kyle was an amazing god son to Gerald and I. He was very hard working and loved it when Uncle Gerald would ask him to help him with tree work or any kind of outdoor work. He always said he loved us at the end of every visit or phone call. We will miss him more than words can express. We love you Kyle. R.I.P Aunt Barb & Uncle Gerald N.
