“ so many memories of Maggie,from my childhood on up..... recently we recalled the night Irene,theresa & I were raising heck,jumping on their bed upstairs on Lake St,when I fell, mouth open, on the rail of the chrome frame & broke my front teeth . Maggie recalled "Yah, & I got in trouble for it because I was babysitting that night!"I remember how proud of that light green VW-her first car-she was. The clothes she made for Robin & passed them down to Laurie. a beautiful seamstress she was. she was so talented. she was always so thoughtful of my mother-her Godmother.when I saw her scrapbooks,it made me realize how much we apparently meant in her life to save even the envelope a card we sent her in. God rest her soul and mind.
