“ Maryanne Trombley-Felton was beautiful, kind, Always Smiling, loving, smart, hard working, determined, strong, independent and a little stubborn & hard-headed at times. She was my Best Friend and although Maryanne didn't have any children of her own, she loved my daughter as such. Maryanne was a true warrior when it came to her battle with cancer and she never gave up hope. Through the Grace of God she spent 5 years in remission which allowed her the opportunity to move back to New York to spend some quality time with her sisters. But she never lost her love for Texas as this is where she spent nearly half of her adult life. Maryanne definitely loved her chips and salsa and breakfast tacos (and sometimes chips and salsa for breakfast). Oh, did I mention she's the only one I know that would go to a Mexican restaurant and order french fries with her tacos? Yep, true story! LOL

We may not have been related by blood but Maryanne definitely had a 2nd family of close friends and co-workers here in Texas and we will all miss her dearly.

Rest In Peace My Friend.

I'll see you again someday!

Love,

Tina Callahan
