

Mrs. Mildred "Millie" Clark

August 24, 1916 - February 25, 2020

Mildred "Millie" Clark, 103, of Andrus St., Malone died Tuesday, Feb. 25, 2020 at the Alice Hyde Medical Center, Malone.

Born on Aug. 24, 1916 in Malone, NY, she was the daughter of Joseph and Roseanna (Poissant) Delaney.

She was married to Kenneth Clark in Malone. He predeceased her.

In her earlier years, Mrs. Clark owned and operated a nursing home with her husband. They took in many foster children over the years. She was a very devoted communicant of St. Joseph's Church, Malone. She loved ceramics and art.

She is survived by her daughter, Dianna Clark of Malone; her son, Louis Clark of Duanesburg, NY; her granddaughter, Kortney Clark and several nieces and nephews.

Besides her husband, she was predeceased by her parents and many brothers and sisters.

There are no calling hours.

A service will be held at Whispering Maples Memorial Gardens mausoleum in Plattsburgh on Monday, Mar. 2 at 12 noon.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Penny LeMay, Joanne French, Sheila Webb, Emily Collins, Kelly LaRocque and Pamela Henault for their excellent care of Millie.
