“ My condolences to the husband of Millie, (whom I never met) and to her brothers Charlie and Jimmy, and to her sister Sylvia, all of which I remember from years gone by. Your mother and father and whoever wanted to play cards at Seles' and Edna Varin's were more than welcome and did so often. I hope your sorrows are short-lived and condolences also to the grandchildren. She looks just as I remembered her. Delores Varin, (I was married to Seles, Jr.)
