“ uncle ernie i miss you so much.you where there for me to answere questions,help me out of a jam,for advise,and anything else that was needed.i wish we would have had more time together.you were like a afther to me,you stood in for my father and your brother.there are so many people that miss you,and love you.now you are being reunited with john.it would be so nice if they had phones where you are just to hear your voice,or to see you smile and laugh when you put a fake snake somewhere to get me.i will never forget the times we had.i will see you again when its mine time untill then fly free with no more earthly pain.all my love uncle ernie love you much dawn
