“ To the Campbell family, I was so sorry to hear of Muriel's passing. I have many fond memories of time spent with your family, playing cards, watching baseball games, sharing meals, just hanging out, especially with Danny and Marie. She was always such a life force, full of energy and full of fun. She will be greatly missed by all who had the good luck to know and love her. Much love, Susan Ryan Schenck

“ To Tom and Muriel’s family, I am saddened to learn of Her passing. My years of sharing the Church choir with her bring vivid memories. She was always supportive of my attempt to be a strong choir member. And, she was always there to help me out with the Annual Harvest Dinner.
