

Mrs. Patricia Clark Dow

April 30, 1952 - September 15, 2021

Patricia Clark Dow, 69, passed away at home surrounded by her family early in the morning of September 15, 2021.

Born on April 30, 1952 in Malone, NY, she was the daughter of Douglas and Dorothy (Gero) Clark. They predeceased her.

Patricia graduated from St. Joseph's Academy. She was employed for Dr. Epstein and also the NYS Dept. of Corrections. She was a communicant of St. Andre Bessette Parish.

She enjoyed searching the north country for antiques and crocks and very much loved the beauty of flower gardens and working in the them. She enjoyed dancing and loved spending time with her family and her dogs. Her passing leaves her family and friends with only memories, but the laughter those memories bring will long outlast the tears of her departure. May her Irish eyes be smiling down on all of us.

She leaves behind her sons, Craig (Brianna) Boyea and Jason Boyea; six siblings, Diane Towle, Daniel Clark, Christine Rausa, Kevin Clark, Douglas Clark and Bruce Clark; her grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Visitation will be Saturday, Sept. 18 from 10:00 am to 11:45 am at St. Mary-Murphy-Wilcox Funeral Home immediately followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 12 noon at Notre Dame Church.

Burial will take place at St. Joseph's Cemetery, Fort Covington Street.

“ My sincere condolences on the passing of my cousin, Patty. I was her flower girl along with her brother, Bruce, as her ring bearer at her wedding. We all loved going to Aunt Dorothy's house to swim and play as kids. Never a dull moment at that house. I hope you all can take comfort in all your memories with her. Take Care.

Love, Marsha (Gero) Gleussner.

“ To the Clark cousins, my sincerest sympathy on the loss of Patty. Some of my favorite childhood memories were at your house on Webster. There was always something going on and someone to play a game of Canasta or other card game! May she rest in peace with your Mom and Dad.

Love,
Carol (Gero) Fenton
