

Mrs. Patsy Lewis Eldridge Rousell

February 6, 2015

Patsy Lewis Eldridge Rousell, 67, of Burke died Friday, February 6, 2015 at her home.

Born in Malone, NY, she was the daughter of Ellsworth "Van" and Mildred O'Donnell Lewis. She attended Chateaugay Central School.

She is survived by her daughter, Kerry Warner and grandson, Riley Warner both of Burke; a sister, Donna Lewis and her companion, Raymond Wilcox of Chateaugay; a brother and sister-in-law, Gary and Debby Lewis of Burke, along with several nieces and nephews.

Besides her parents, Mrs. Rousell was predeceased by a brother, James Lewis and son-in-law, Michael Warner.

Mrs. Rousell worked at the Malone Dress Factory until it closed. She then went to work as a home health aide for North Country Home Services, where she still worked seasonally at the time of her death, taking great pride in the care she gave others. She was also a trustee for the Village of Burke. Mrs. Rousell enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, and was an avid reader.

The family will receive family and friends at the Chateaugay Funeral Home on Friday, Feb. 13 from 10 am to 12 pm until the time of the service at 12 pm. Spring burial will take place at Burke Center Cemetery at the family's convenience.

Donations may be made in her memory to the Burke Volunteer Fire Dept. or the American Heart Association.
