“ Dear Donna,
We read of Phil's death in the newspaper & were quite surprised as we didn't realize he'd been sick. We're so sorry for your loss. Only time will help ease your pain. Tom & Betty Cook

“ Dear Donna ...Our family was so sorry to hear about Phil's passing. We have been out of touch for so long and have not been able to find Steve in several years. I am sure you knew that all the gal nieces went to see Hazel before she dies and had a great visit. Aunt Ollie has been gone since 2006 and Aunt Lucile in 2003. I would love to give your address to the family and maybe a phone number if you would share it. We are so sorry for your loss and hope you are doing OK. Uncle Burt would have 100 years old this year if he had lived. Seems like yesterday that Uncle Stan went looking for the plane crash. Cousin Dawn is living in NC now and Bev may be moving soon. Terry plans to go south as well. Linda still in Calif. I hope you'll get in touch..Love Bonnie
