“ Rita Remembered

Beverly Durocher Morgan, My sister Rita Lucille had a life well lived, She was a young woman when our mom died, as a young mother of two preschoolers she lost her husband Subby in a mining accident where he was burned over 90% of his body, She also suffered several miscarriages, had a daughter seriously injured in a car accident and lost a grown daughter to cancer, yet she bloomed where she was planted. Wally always treated her like the treasure she is. Like all the Durocher siblings of Nelson and Rose Eva she helped keep the family together like her Mama desired. I thank Rita for being sure I did not have an "old lady" name as she was the one who picked me up at the hospital after my extended stay from the traumatic birth that took our mom
