“ Rob was the smartest guy I ever met. He also took on incredible amounts of work yet made it all look so easy. He was also a great guy with some great stories, and was always helpful. Friends and family have lost a great guy. Franklin county has lost an irreplaceable worker that will be impossible to fill his shoes. I will miss him greatly.

“ Began working with Rob 7 years ago with his role with the county. Became pretty close, speaking with each other almost daily over the last 5 years and visiting multiple times as well. Rob never had a bad thing to say, was always very kind, caring and put a smile on your face whenever you spent time with him. God bless his wife and children. See you in heaven my friend.

“ My heart goes out to Kris and the boys. I will always remember Rob for capturing the great moments in so many of our children's lives on camera for us to enjoy over and over again. I appreciated his insight about everything as we stood on the sidelines at all sporting events. He was a good man and will certainly be missed.
