

Mr. Ronald L. Cook

February 29, 1940 - October 4, 2022

Ronald L. Cook, 82, of Coveytown Road, Constable, died October 4, 2022 at his home.

Born on February 29, 1940 in Chateaugay, NY, he was the son of Reuben and Myrtle (Hyde) Cook.

He was married to Melba J. Maither on January 25, 1963 at the Chateaugay United Methodist Church by Rev. Charles Martin. She predeceased him on August 3, 2020.

Ronald graduated from Chateaugay Central School. He worked on the family farm and at the Chateaugay Cheese plant before becoming an anode and crane operator at Reynolds Metals in Massena, retiring after 37 years. He worked at the Franklin County Fair for 48 years and delivered meals on wheels. Ronald was a lifetime member of the Constable United Methodist Church. He was past patron of the Northern Aurora #383 Free and Accepted Masons in Fort Covington as well as a color bearer for the Coveytown Chapter 392 Order of the Eastern Star and the state level.

Ronald was a member of the EvertonFi Hunting Club and a member of the Constable Fire Department. He was an active member of the Malone Shriners Club in Malone and was a past president in 2012. He spent many years being Cookie, the clown, going to parades to entertain children and help local youth. Ronald always wanted to help people, including donating blood whenever he could. He also served as a boy scout leader for several years.

Ronald is survived by his two sons, John Cook of Plattsburgh and Kevin Cook of Otisfield, ME; two grandchildren; Reece and Madeline; as well as many nieces and nephews.

Besides his wife, he was predeceased by his parents; a granddaughter, Mackenzie Nicole; siblings, R. Clifford (Kathryn), Norman W.B. (Shirley), Eunice Bonner (Lawrence), G. Richard (Rose), Robert, Francis (Mabel) and his twin, Donald.

A memorial service will be held at the Constable United Methodist Church on Friday, October 14 at 2 p.m.

Burial will take place at Eastside Cemetery, Chateaugay.

Donations in Ronald's memory may be made to Shriner's Children's Hospital.
