“ I am so sorry, June, for your loss. Steve was always a bright spot at the adult center. Whenever I heard the 4 wheeler pull up I knew we would all be laughing in the kitchen soon! I've missed him, and you. God bless you.

“ Several fun memories as I say goodbye to another classmate of CCS 1968. Steve was a fun loving guy, certainly had the dance moves, and was always there on Saturday afternoon to help set up for our Saturday evening reunions. He was missed two years ago. Rest in peace, til we meet again, Steve, and keep on dancing! My condolences to June (She and Irving were always so supportive of our reunions.) and the rest of his family. Thoughts and prayers.....
