“ Dear Aunt Kathy and family,
I'm so sorry to hear of Tommy's passing. When I last saw Tommy, some years ago, we had a nice conversation. I was recently thinking of him and had hoped to see him again sometime. My family is thinking of you all during this difficult time.

“ Dear Mrs. Buxton and Family,
Tom was a dear close friend of mine. We spent many hours laughing and telling stories around the campfire in Grafton. He will be greatly missed. Tom was an exceptional man. He was always concerned about others and doing the right thing. We also shared a strong belief in God. I am confident he is already in heaven resting in everlasting peace.
My prayers will be with you.

Our sincere condolences on the loss of Tom. While we did not know Tom personally, any brother to Sandy must share the rich sense of humor and joy of life that she brings to all she meets.
