Mr. B was a remarkable man, always smiling. I will always remember all the great times our families have had. Our vacations,our camping days. All the places we went and most of all our days sliding down the big hill in Coopersville. Riding with him and Judy and the kids through Montreal to the baseball games to go sit in the middle of the crowd cheering on our favorite teams (not Montreal). The look of joy when I asked him to be godfather of my son. Rest in peace Mr B. You will be missed by many.

“ My condolences for your loss. He was an awesome cousin of mine. His mom was my aunt from my mom's side. It has been many years since I have seen him but I will always remember his smile. I am sure he is with all of the family that has gone before him. Rest in peace.
